

2017-18 Annual Report

About Us

Sask Sport Inc. (Sask Sport) is a volunteer-led, non-profit organization and the federation for amateur sport in Saskatchewan. Its members provide opportunities for Saskatchewan residents of all ages and abilities to participate in sport.

Volunteers founded Sask Sport in 1972 to provide a unified voice for amateur sport, to establish a fundraising program, and to develop collective programs and services beneficial to sport. Two years later, Sask Sport volunteer board members provided the start-up funds for the Western Canada Lottery Corporation. The first lottery was successful and the Government of Saskatchewan enacted legislation for Sask Sport to operate Saskatchewan Lotteries and allocate funds to eligible sport, culture and recreation organizations in Saskatchewan.

The sport federation's membership has grown to include more than 70 sport and multi-service organizations that deliver sport across the province to over 300,000 registered participants.

Saskatchewan Lotteries is the main fundraiser for more than 12,000 sport, culture and recreation groups that provide quality activities that benefit nearly 1,000 communities, over 600,000 registered participants, and impact many more.

Volunteers remain the foundation of the lottery-funded sport, culture and recreation system. Today, over 330,000 volunteers combined with non-profit professionals, form a vast and skilled workforce motivated by a shared belief that participation in sport, culture and recreation should be accessible for all, and that it has the power to transform lives and communities.

The Sask Sport Annual Report, along with profiles and stories, will be posted at www.sasksport.sk.ca following the Annual General Meeting.

Message from the Chair

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I am pleased to present the highlights of Sask Sport Inc. and its associated entities for the 2017-18 fiscal year.

It has been my pleasure to act as chair in my third year on the board, and to serve with such a dedicated group of individuals; I am grateful for their leadership and expertise.

Sask Sport and its member organizations have a long and proud history of working with others to create innovative opportunities, and we are proud of what we have achieved together.

Thank you to our members and the thousands of volunteers, professionals, coaches and officials that are part of the sport delivery system, as well as to the many partners, donors and stakeholders who invest in amateur sport. Thank you also to the lottery retailers who work so diligently on behalf of the lottery fundraiser and to our global partners, which help to administer lottery funding.

On behalf of the amateur sport community and Sask Sport, we want to acknowledge the Government of Saskatchewan for its continued support of the lottery-funded volunteer system.

This system is unique in Canada and I am honoured to be a part of it. It champions healthy and active lifestyles; safe and quality participation for all; reduces barriers; and brings people and communities together. The benefits of participation are long-lasting and far-reaching.

“Together we can leave a legacy for future generations.”

Saskatchewan Lotteries

Saskatchewan Lotteries is the provincial marketing organization for Western Canada Lottery products such as LOTTO 6/49, LOTTO MAX and SCRATCH 'N WIN.

Sask Sport has been licensed to operate Saskatchewan Lotteries continuously since 1974, and through an agreement with the Government of Saskatchewan, proceeds from Saskatchewan Lotteries are dedicated to sport, culture and recreation organizations to benefit communities throughout the province.

In the beginning, volunteer power was harnessed to establish the sales and distribution system across the province, and through the years it has evolved into a sophisticated network of 927 retail locations.

Highlights:

$196 MILLION

Selling Dreams for over Three Decades

In 2018, Larry Tymchak retired after over three decades as a lottery retailer.

“I have been very fortunate over the years that I have worked with people that really enjoy selling dreams to people. I can’t count the number of winning lottery tickets I’ve sold, or the number of adults, children and sport, culture and recreation groups that have benefited from all of the lottery ticket sales.”

Saskatchewan Lotteries Trust Fund for Sport, Culture and Recreation

Proceeds from the sale of lottery products are placed in the Saskatchewan Lotteries Trust Fund for Sport, Culture and Recreation (Trust Fund) for granting to eligible organizations as designated by the Minister of Parks, Culture and Sport. Three volunteer-led, non-profit organizations—Sask Sport Inc., SaskCulture Inc. and the Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association Inc.—are partners in the Trust Fund. Volunteer committees from the sport, culture and recreation communities review and adjudicate all funding requests.

By entrusting the volunteer community, Saskatchewan has nurtured a cost-effective and efficient delivery system. More importantly, it has empowered people to make decisions best for their communities and garnered widespread support at the grassroots level.

There are approximately 1,200 organizations that receive direct funding and through them over 12,000 sport, culture and recreation groups benefit.

The lottery-funded volunteer sport, culture and recreation system is really about people but it also provides Saskatchewan with opportunities for leadership, economic growth, community building, quality and safe programming, and much more.

The funded groups put lottery proceeds to work. It is estimated that they leverage an additional $4 for every $1 of funding thereby multiplying the investment made into the system each year.

The volunteer sport, culture and recreation system impacts Saskatchewan's economy too. Over five years, the economic benefits included:

Approximately 37,000 jobs
$387 Million taxes collected	$3 Billion additional GDP
$1.9 Billion labour income	$6 Billion economic activity

Saskatchewan Lotteries Community Grant Program

The Saskatchewan Lotteries Community Grant Program is a partnership involving Sask Sport Inc., SaskCulture Inc. and the Saskatchewan Parks and Recreation Association Inc. It assists in the development of sport, culture and recreation programs by providing funds to non-profit community organizations operated by volunteers. The goal is to get people involved in sport, culture and recreation activities by enabling communities to address the needs of local residents.

In 2017-18, over $5.5 million was granted to help nearly 1,000 communities across the province. The community grants that were received this year helped support programs ranging from senior fitness in Govan to hockey tournaments in James Smith Cree Nation to music festivals in Lafleche. Virtually every area of the province is impacted by the Community Grant Program, which enriches the lives of Saskatchewan people.

Enhancing Saskatchewan Lives through Sport

The Sask Sport Development Strategic Plan 2017-2021 (available at www.sasksport.sk.ca) guides the organization and provides a framework for how best to enhance collaboration and sport opportunities for all cultures, ages, and abilities.

Through the strength of its volunteer force and passionate sport leaders, this system promotes active and healthy lifestyles, embraces diversity and inclusivity, works to reduce barriers, and provides quality, safe environments.

The volunteer-led sport delivery system works together to empower Saskatchewan residents with sport opportunities at introductory, recreational, competitive and high performance levels, including:

provincial sport governing bodies

7
districts

26,000
trained coaches

15,000
certified officials

6,000
local teams, clubs, leagues, and communities

Sport Brings People Together

Sport helps shape leaders and communities. It brings people together, and provides a healthy platform for reconciliation and inclusivity.

This year, the Government of Saskatchewan extended its existing Canada Saskatchewan Bilateral Agreement on Sport Participation for another three years (until 2021-22), and expanded its objectives to include support for programming that strengthens Indigenous capacity, leadership and culturally-relevant community sport programs. This funding leverages provincial sport investments that have a high impact on sport participation. Sask Sport and the Government of Saskatchewan manage the Agreement.

Over the past year, approximately $383,000 was contributed by the federal government to impact programs such as Dream Brokers, the Aboriginal Community Sport Development Grant, the Aboriginal Coaches and Officials Program, Aboriginal Sport Enhancement Program, Sport for All/Games Coordinator Program, Aboriginal Sport Leadership Council, and Team Saskatchewan travel support to participate in the North American Indigenous Games. This funding is critical as the sport community responds to the Truth and Reconciliation Calls to Action. The Agreement provides stable funding for community sport programs that reflect the diverse cultures and traditional sport activities of Indigenous participants.

Audra Young has been the Chair of the Aboriginal Sport Leadership Council of Sask Sport for the past six years. “Our leadership team is in place to provide an Indigenous lens for sport development in the province. This volunteer team of leaders play a vital role in guiding Sask Sport’s work in partnership with Indigenous communities to support and encourage participation at every level, from community to high performance sport. Through giving back and working together, I believe we can make a difference, and begin to address the ‘Calls to Action’ to advance reconciliation through sport.”

“Sport is a tool to strengthen and build better communities. An effective team sport approach does not focus on differences; rather, it embraces the skills and abilities of each individual. Sport is the platform which can contribute to the development of children and youth, while kids get to have fun in a structured environment that contributes to a sense of belonging, teamwork, leadership, pride and motivation.”

Developing Sport and its Leaders

Sport impacts people and communities in ways that intersect and complement each other, building healthier, more connected and engaged communities. Research shows that sport creates leaders, increases community capacities and social capital, grows the economy, and much more. Sask Sport continues to invest in the Saskatchewan amateur sport system and its leaders for future generations.

Highlights:

- 5,615 coaches completed the Respect in Sport online training this year. Over 38,000 coaches and sport leaders have completed the training since inception in 2006.
- The Aboriginal Coaches and Officials Program includes advanced training opportunities, impacting 680 coaches and 156 officials.
- The Aboriginal Community Sport Development Grant supported 78 programs and helped over 6,600 children and youth participate in 26 different sports.
- The Saskatoon Tribal Council and the Coaches Association of Saskatchewan hosted the first-ever “Super Clinic” for coaches of the 2018 Tony Cote Winter Games, with 145 participants.
- Nearly 250 individuals participated in the Officials Professional Development Grant Program.
- 15 sports and more than 2,000 youth participated in over 75 camps and opportunities through the Aboriginal Sport Enhancement Program which raises the performance level and capacity of athletes, coaches, officials and volunteers.
- This year there were 36 hosting grants administered for 18 regional, 14 national, and four international events, helping bring sporting events and visitors to communities across the province.

Increasing Participation for All

The sport delivery system strives to support a growing and diverse population through sport programs and services, fostering a healthy, inclusive and welcoming environment for all.

Together with partners and stakeholders, Sask Sport provides support, ongoing consultation and community assessments that enhance community sport participation through existing programs and services.

Highlights:

- The self-identification process has been enhanced this year to help member organizations track participation by heritage, age, gender and abilities.
- Sask Sport collaborated with provincial sport governing bodies and stakeholders to explore ways to champion efficiency and sustainable practices in the Saskatchewan adaptive sport system. The Parasport Grant Programs have enriched the sport experience of over 1,500 participants with disabilities.
- Give Kids a Chance Charity Inc. (www.givekidsachancecharity.ca) provided positive opportunities for over 57,000 children and youth, and contributed approximately $2.8 million in funding through the Dream Brokers, Jumpstart Afterschool Program, KidSport, and Northern Community & Schools Recreation Coordinator Program.
- The Aboriginal Long-Term Participant Development Pathway was created to provide the perspective and understanding that sport exists to meet the needs and experiences of all participants including Indigenous peoples. This means that the selection, design, and delivery of sport opportunities respects and honors Indigenous approaches to sport. This year, Sask Sport assisted with the development of this resource, trained two staff members as Indigenous Community Long-term Participant workshop facilitators and facilitated two workshops in Saskatchewan.
- The participation of women and girls in sport remains a priority. Play Like a Girl and Fast and Female events were held in Saskatoon and Swift Current, and the Canadian Advancement for Women and Sport and Physical Activity held 10 leadership workshops.
- The Districts for Sport, Culture and Recreation had 790 consultations and 1,500 connections to local programs and services.

“Soccer is the world’s game and there are people from all over the world now calling Saskatchewan home. We want soccer to be a welcoming place for newcomers. They can get involved with the game they love and this may have significant meaning for them since it was an important part of their culture prior to coming to Canada.”

Recognizing Excellence and Celebrating Achievements

Celebrating excellence and achievements inspires others to make healthy choices, pursue goals, and reach for their dreams.

The outstanding performance of Saskatchewan teams and individuals for their accomplishments and contribution to the sport system are recognized through an Athlete of the Month Program and the Saskatchewan Sport Awards, celebrating the exceptional athletes, coaches, officials and volunteers in the province. The Athlete of the Year Awards were first presented in 1984.

“Sport is more than a game to me because at the end of the day, it’s the lessons that you learn and the memories that you make that mean the most. I would encourage the younger generation to do whatever they’re passionate about. And, honestly, you can do whatever you want and be whatever you want, because dreams come from within.”

The Sport System Supported Four Major Multi-Sport Games in 2017-18!

Congratulations to the amateur sport community!

Saskatchewan was successful at these games because of the vast support from generous volunteers, trained coaches, skilled officials, supportive families and dedicated Districts and communities that provided the capacity to host and prepare for so many games in one year.

CANADA SUMMER GAMES

Winnipeg

"Programs and services offered through the Sport Medicine and Science Council of Saskatchewan have been such a huge benefit to our players. It's very important for athletes to have an all-year-round strength program so they can do testing and see where their velocity and strength is at. Once they see the results, they know the areas in which they need to work harder. After two years of strength training in our academy program, one player went from pitching 80 miles per hour to 90 mph. Some of our athletes have been able to continue their baseball careers at the college level because of these opportunities."

Reaching Dreams

The amateur sport system supports Saskatchewan's athletes, coaches and officials to attain greater success in the pursuit of excellence at regional, national and international levels.

Highlights:

- The Saskatchewan Program for Athletic Excellence and the Future Best Program supported 151 athletes who are either currently on national teams or are athletes with the potential to reach their national teams.
- There are approximately 375 Saskatchewan coaches and officials working at national or international levels.
- The High Performance Coach Capacity Grant employed 33 coaches in 21 targeted sports, directly impacting approximately 3,500 athletes and nearly 1,100 coaches. This grant supports Saskatchewan coaches who work with high performance athletes and are committed to upgrading their coaching skills and abilities through education, training, and certification. The program has shown significant impact to Saskatchewan's national and international performances.

Sask Sport manages and administers the Canadian Sport Centre Saskatchewan (CSCS), helping Saskatchewan athletes and coaches reach their high-performance national and international goals. CSCS is a proud member of the Canadian Olympic and Paralympic Sport Institute Network providing sport science and medicine, coaching, research and innovation, education and Game Plan services to POWER PODIUM PERFORMANCES. With the support of partners, CSCS and Sask Sport can deliver quality programs and services #BuildingChampions.

Administration Centres for Sport, Culture and Recreation (1989) Inc.

Sask Sport operates the Administration Centres for Sport, Culture and Recreation to provide business services in an affordable manner to non-profit sport, culture and recreation organizations throughout the province. These services include bookkeeping, payroll, printing and office space rental, in addition to administrative and other common support services.

The Administration Centres' services help non-profit groups to operate efficiently and effectively, and to focus their efforts on providing quality programs to their members.

Highlights:

- 221 groups accessed services.
- Over 51,000 square feet of office and storage space rented to groups in five Regina and Saskatoon buildings, used by 68 organizations and over 200 employees.
- 150 organizations and 705 employees accessed payroll service, allowing these employers and employees access to a pension and benefits program.
- 1,519 projects completed through the Printshop, including business cards, coaching manuals, and more.
- Over 85,000 pieces of First Class mail (under 500g) and 6,650 parcels were processed, saving organizations an estimated $20,000 in mailing costs.
- Nearly 5,000 hours of professional bookkeeping and audit preparation services provided to 49 organizations.

“The Admin Centre is very important for non-profits, who are often working on smaller budgets and need to find a service that’s affordable but still high-quality.”
